

Ensure Compliance & Improve Processes with MRI Evolution and SFG20

Solution Overview

Ensure your operating to industry best practise to deliver consistent planned maintenance to your assets, regardless of your portfolio size with MRI Evolution, integrated with SFG20.

By combining the data and standards from SFG20 into Evolution, you can accurately plan and resource accordingly to achieve planned maintenance based on widely tested data tests and scenarios complied from SFG20 to increase efficiencies and workload.

Maintaining compliance plays a big part in ensuring you're running safe and well-maintained environments for your staff and visitors. Falling short of ensuring compliance comes with huge risks such as financial penalties and reputational impact. Through end-to-end updates from SFG20 into Evolution, changes or amendments to standards and requirements can be automatically updated, ensuring you maintain compliance, stay ahead of changes and the impacts these could have on your business.

Unlock greater efficiencies and time savings while avoiding manual data entry errors with the automated data flow between MRI Evolution and SFG20.

Pain-free integration even for complex maintenance procedures with tasks broken down into straightforward steps.

Enhance your asset maintenance with SFG20's comprehensive scheduling, to help improve your asset performance and extend their lifespans, maximising your operations and reducing costs.

Be in control with access to up-to date maintenance schedules and data to enable you to make informed decisions and facilitating proactive maintenance and resource.

Help your business achieve more, stay compliant and increase efficiency with renowned facilities management solutions used around the world.

